

Preamble

Parliament of the Republic of A1 begun and held at the City of Frontdeskville, on the 5th of January in the year two thousand and eight.

Resolved by the People's Congress of the People's Republic of A1 in Parliament assembled, two thirds of the House concurring that the following Articles be proposed to the Legislatures of the several states as Amendments to the Constitution of the Republic of A1, all or any of which articles, when ratified by three fourths of the said Legislatures to be valid to all intents and purposes as part of the said Constitution. viz.

Articles in addition to, and Amendment of the Constitution of the Republic of A1, proposed by Parliament and Ratified by the Legislature.

Amendment I

No Soldier shall, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the Owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.

Amendment II

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

Amendment III

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a High Court Jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the Defence Forces, when in actual service in time of War or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation, unless in a time of great need.

Amendment IV

In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the State and region wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favour, and to have the Assistance of Counsel for his defence.

Amendment V

In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury, shall be otherwise re-examined in any Court of the Republic of A1, than according to the rules of the common law.

Amendment VI

Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

Amendment VII

The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.
